and State Government in many cases, the State Government do not give the matching contribution on time. In hilly States and the North East the working season is limited and there are accessibility problems, which also impede the progress.

Schemes for BPL People

†2862. SHRI KALRAJ MISHRA: Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state: (a) the details of schemes being run by Government for the benefit of people living Below the Poverty Line;

(b) the details of funds allocated during the last two years for implementation of these schemes, State-wise;

(c) whether Government are formulating any plan to ensure full and appropriate use of the funds allocated for these schemes; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI SURYAKANTA PATIL): (a) The Ministry of Rural Development is implementing a number of poverty alleviation programmes such as Sampoorna Gramin Rozgar Yojana (SGRY) which is a wage employment programme and a self-employment programme of Swarnjayanti Gram Swarozgar Yojana (SGSY). The Government has launched a National Rural Employment Guarantee Act (NREGA) in 200 districts of the country with effect from 2nd February, 2006, providing a guarantee of 100 days wage employment to one member of a rural household who is willing to take up the manual work. The NREGA is a demand-driven programme. The Ministry is also implementing a Rural Housing Programme under the name of Indira Awaas Yojana (IAY) to provide assistance to the rural poor for construction of houses. The Rural Drinking Water Supply and Rural Sanitation Programme also contribute in improving the living conditions of the rural poor.

(b) The State-wise details of the funds allocated for the poverty alleviation programmes of the Ministry during the last two years are given in the Statement. (See below).

(c) and (d) The Ministry of rural Development has already put in place a comprehensive monitoring system to ensure the proper utilization of allocation made for the poverty alleviation programmes. Besides collecting information through the periodical reports and reviews undertaken by the Union Minister, the Ministry has also introduced the following tools of monitoring:—

(1) Area Officers Scheme: Officers of the Ministry have been allocated States/Districts to undertake visits for the purpose of collecting first hand information.

(2) District Level Monitoring: A number of independent reputed research institutions have been involved to monitor the implementation of the programmes of the Ministry.

(3) National Level Monitors: A panel of retired civil servants and defence officers has been prepared to look into specific complaints and also undertake periodical visits in the specified districts.

(4) Vigilance & Monitoring Committees: These Committees function at the State level as well as at the district level where the elected representatives of the people have been assigned a significant role to monitor the programmes of the Ministry.

(5) Performance Review Committee: This is an forum where the performance is reviewed periodically with the senior officers of the States.
